VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1906.

NO. 99.

FARMER'S DEPARTMENT.

R. B. Wilkinson bought of Mark Hardin a 1,000-pound beef at 3c.

FOR RENT.—Twenty-five acres of hemp land for 1906. See C. C. Carter, Stanford.

FOR SALE.—Seven coming three and four-year-old mules. Clay Floyd, Hustonville Ky.

FOR SALE.—shocks 250 fodder. Good place to feed it. Givens Carter, Moreland, Ky.

J. C. Pepples, Preachersville, wants to buy some 100-pound hogs. He has 700 shocks of fodder for sale.

C. A. Daugherty, of Bourbon county, sold his farm of 121 acres at $125. It had no improvements except a tobacco barn.

W. L. Reynolds, of Cynthiana, purchased from John L. Hopkins, the McLeod farm of 455 acres in Woodford county, for $68,250.

ESTRAY.—Black sow, bob-tailed, will weigh 175 pounds. Left six weeks ago. Reward for her recovery. W. H. Shanks, Stanford.

J. C. Caldwell delivered to Simon Weil 247 export cattle that averaged about 1,400 pounds, $4.45. There were 14 car loads.—Danville Advocate.

J. W. Young, of North Middletown, sold two jennets to a Pittsburg man; for $250. He also sold to W. J. Davis, of Hutchison, a 4-year-old jack for $340.

Black barrow, weight about 60 lbs., came to my place four months ago. Owner can get him by paying for this notice and his keep. R. E. Gaines, Walnut Flat.

J. C. Bailey has a pair of the best matched geldings in this part of the State. They are rich bays, close to 16 hands high and are exceedingly well gaited. They should bring him a small fortune.

A red heifer with a few white spots, blind in one eye, came to my place in September last. Owner can get her by proving property and paying for her keep and this advertisement. J. M. Dye, McKinney.

As agent for E. F. Spears & Son of Paris, Mr. John B. Foster has bought about 1,000 acres of hemp at 4c per pound. This will bring to the farmers of Lincoln county in the neighborhood of $60,000. The excellent prices Mr. Foster pays have attracted the attention of hemp raisers in the neighboring counties and he has bought a large acreage of hemp both in Boyle and Garrard counties. Mr. Foster is not only an excellent judge of farm products but is a man of great energy and always succeeds at whatever he undertakes. A few more like him would make Stanford and vicinity eclipse in business enterprises.

Now and Then.

Some thorough and careful physician invents, in his practice, some special medicine, that proves so universally successful whenever prescribed, that he proceeds to place it before the public to be reached by the newspapers. This is the history of Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. For years, prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell for constipation, and all disorders of liver, stomach and bowels. It was at last manufactured on a large scale, and is now the most successful medicine in the world for these diseases. A pure, scientific tonic, laxative, syrup; pleasant to take and perfect in results. Try it. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

While chasing an escaped prisoner Sheriff Pleas B. Broadus of Madison, ran against the limb of a tree and was knocked unconscious. In falling, his nose was broken.

A Card.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures la grippe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

A bill was introduced in the House of the General Assembly by Representative Bourne providing that every fire and life insurance company doing business in the State shall keep on deposit with the Insurance Commissioner bonds or securities a par value of $100,000, to be subjected to demands against such company reduced to judgment.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld J. G. Livingston will preach at Mt. Olive at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

John Morgan Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held memorial services at the Christian church at Nicholasville in honor of Gen. Joseph Wheeler.

Rev. S. B. Lander will preach in the Hustonville Presbyterian church next Sunday Feb. 4th, morning and evening. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject: "Rest." Evening service at 7 o'clock. Subject: "A Tale that is Told."

While her favorite old-time hymns were being sung at a meeting held at Methodist church especially for old people, Mrs. Mary A. Lewis at Hopkinsville, was stricken with apoplexy and died before she could be removed from the building.

A Habit to Be Encouraged.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup to which children are susceptible are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first systems of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to little ones with a feeling of perfect security. Sold by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist at Stanford, Ky.

James Weir, an aged banker of Owensboro, is dead.

The Brownlow and Evans Republican factions are now lined up over the Governorship of Tennessee.

Maxwell Blake, of Missour, has been appointed Consul to Funchal, Madeira, to succeed Thomas C. Jones, of Kentucky.

Chief of Police Henry Deputy, of Newport, after being pronounced dead, lived for five hours before the end finally came.

The executors of Marshall Field's estate estimate his personal property in Illinois at $50,000,000 and his realty at $25,000,000.

State Revenue Agent J. F. Hawn filed suit at London to recover tax for the State for five years on property to the amount of $165,000.

A delegation of citizens from Madison county will to-day offer the General Assembly the grounds and buildings of old Central University at Richmond for the establishment of the proposed State Normal School.

Lame Back.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the parts vigorously at each application. If this does not afford relief, bind on a piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm, and quick relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by Dr. W. N. Craig, the popular druggist, at Stanford, Ky.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has affirmed the death sentence of "Lord" Seymour Barrington and has fixed March 15 as the date of execution. Officials of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company at a meeting in Nashville approved the increase of capital stock to $30,000,000.

A Woman's Martyrdom

Is too often her own fault, simply because she won't take sufficient trouble to try a medicine that so many thousands of women enthusiastically recommend, viz: Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. This bland, soothing, curative medicine, regulates disordered functions of stomach, liver, bowels, etc., and soon restores sick women to perfect health. Try it. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

A milliner endeavored to sell to a colored woman one of the last season's hats at a very moderate price. It was a big white picture hat.

"Law, no, honey! exclaimed the woman. 'I could neva wear that. I'd look jes' like a blueberry in a pan of Milk.'"—Ladies Home Journal.

Defies Time.

One the most beautiful women in America defies the ravages of time by simply keeping her blood purified with Dr. Caldwell's (laxative) Syrup Pepsin. It will do the same for you. If taken at the least sign of bowel, liver or stomach trouble, it will prevent all kinds of sickness, keep your circulation clear, and your skin and complexion as fresh and pure as in childhood. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.

The author of the song, "On the Banks of the Wabash," has just died, but he is not the song's first victim.
